NORTHBOUND TRAFFIC DETOURED VIA RIVER

Oiling Operations Between Hopland and Cloverdale Now On

There still remains ten and one-half miles of State highway between Cloverdale and Hopland which is unoiled. This stretch of dusty road will be oiled during the ten days, beginning August 4, 1926, and in order to obtain the best results in applying the oil, and to best protect the public from splattering oil on their machines the northbound through traffic will be detoured via the river road between McCray's and Hopland. Southbound traffic will use the State highway and travel the half of the road which is not freshly oiled.

Traffic to Fort Bragg, Boonville and the coast will necessarily use the State highway but should travel not more than ten miles per hour over any fresh oil through which it may be necessary to pass.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses were issued the past week to the following couples: Alexander F. Eagle, over 21, of San Francisco, and Clara B. Tyler, over 21, of Vallejo; Gill Summers, 50, of Ceres, and Lynn Elizabeth Winfree, 38, of San Jose; Charles E. Leonard, 23, and Margaret M. Washburn, 19, both of Lakeport; Samuel E. Mitchell, 24, and Winifred C. Beckley, 21, of Ukiah; Byron Potter, 24, of Irmulco, and Alpha Haughn, 18, of Longvale; Reginald G. Grant, 21, and Fannie C. Butler, 20, both of Ukiah.

BOY BURGLARS ARRESTED

The Bellamy store was entered by burglars last Saturday night or Sunday and a number of articles stolen. Marshal T. M. Cleland was informed of the circumstance by Mr. Bellamy and rounded up four boys who had been hanging around the place for several days previously. They confessed and gave up the loot, which consisted of several pocket knives and other miscellaneous articles and $2 in pennies.

HUNTER BOYS FINED

Gene and Grover Hunter, who came to this city last Friday to plead guilty to having deer meat in their possession out of season, after they had refused to submit to arrest and had threatened Game Warden Ransdell with guns, were fined $100 each by Judge Busch.

The men have had their lesson and appeared to be repentant.

They were "read the riot act" by the judge and district attorney.

LOSES FATHER BY DEATH

Bert Rains and family went to Santa Rosa Thursday of last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Rains's father, who dropped dead on his ranch there the previous day.

Mrs. Bertha Emery has just returned from a three weeks' vacation visit at Bartlett springs. During her stay there Mrs. Emery painted a number of scenes.

MAYOR SUFFERS INJURY WHILE AIDING ROUNDUP

Riding at full speed across a field, the horse stepped in a hole and fell. A rise in the plowed ground held the rider's arm beneath the animal. The horse was not injured.

Incidentally it may be said that in driving cattle Ukiah may justly lay claim to being part of the wild and wooly west since the chief avocation of her mayor is driving cattle. In cowboy outfit, Mayor Anderson may often be seen assisting in a round up or driving cattle far beyond the boundaries of this city. The same horse is commandeered in city inspection. When even the earliest risers are softly napping his canter may be heard up and down the city streets. He has also the distinction of pulling almost the last "white" buggy in the county.

HUNTING PERMITTED ON EASTERN RANGES

Since the promulgation of the news that the government land in the mountains lying between here and Lake county has been made a government game park and withdrawn from homestead entry, there have been a number of inquiries as to whether hunting would be permitted there.

According to Henry Spurr, local United States commissioner and Game Warden Ransdell, hunting in season is freely permitted in the area.

The land was withdrawn from entry in order to insure its remaining a perpetual hunting park free to the people and to prevent its being "hogged" by wealthy game clubs and closed to the public.

GIBSON MUCH ENCOURAGED

Attorney Lilburn Gibson was in this week after a swing around the circle on his campaign tour. He is highly pleased at the support he is receiving all over the county and states that there are twenty people working for him now, where there was only one at the last election, and that this is true on the coast as well as in the valleys.

Gibson is a competent lawyer and a fair and square shooter and if elected the people will be well represented in the important office of district attorney.

INDIAN BAD CHECK MAN CAPTURED THIS WEEK

Filburn Knight, an Indian, wanted for passing a bad check on Nick George, local restaurant man, was located and placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriffs McCabe and Weselsky this week.

Knight forged the name of Wesley Cox, prominent local rancher, to a check for $15. He is also accused of having passed several other checks here.

THE REPUBLICAN PRESS, SHERIFF BYRNES, AND THE FARM BUREAU EXPERT'S REPORT

(EDITORIAL)

The Republican Press this week makes a great deal of capital out of the expenses of the sheriff's office as disclosed by the expert recently employed by the farm bureau to inquire into county affairs.

The Press publishes as a special feature on its front page the information that the expenses of conducting the sheriff's office have grown from $9,392.17 a year in 1921 to $20,724.69 in 1925. This includes salaries, detective expenses and all other expenses of the office.

* * * * *

But there is another side of the story which you will not find published on the front page of the Press. You will find it hidden away among the tables where not one reader in 500 will ever notice it.

THIS MATTER WHICH YOU WILL NOT SEE ON THE PRESS'S FRONT PAGE SHOWS THAT WHILE THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE SPENT $20,724.69 IN 1925, THERE WAS COLLECTED IN FINES, PENALTIES, ETC., THE SUM OF $23,036.35.

AND MOST OF THIS MONEY WAS CONTRIBUTED BY BOOTLEGGERS WHO WERE APPREHENDED THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF THE SHERIFF.

* * * * *

In 1921, when there were no bootleggers to work on, the office cost $9,392.17 and the fines collected amounted to $1400.

SO, COMPARING THE TWO, WE FIND THAT ACTUALLY THE OFFICE IS COSTING THE TAXPAYERS ALMOST NOTHING TODAY, WHEREAS, THE COST IN 1921 WAS ABOUT $8,000.

When the taxpayers read that the sheriff's office is costing them over $20,000 a year, let them remember the $23,000 on the opposite side of the ledger.

AND LET THEM REMEMBER ALSO THAT ANYTHING THEY READ IN THE REPUBLICAN PRESS ABOUT SHERIFF BYRNES AND HIS CONDUCT OF THE OFFICE IS EITHER ONLY HALF TRUTHS OR ELSE IS UTTERLY FALSE.

* * * * *

Mendocino county has a sheriff to be proud of. He is one in ten thousand and there is not the least doubt that he will be reelected by an overwhelming majority in the November election.

BUT MENDOCINO COUNTY OWES SHERIFF BYRNES MORE THAN THAT. MENDOCINO COUNTY OWES IT TO SHERIFF BYRNES TO REELECT HIM IN THE PRIMARIES. GET OUT AND VOTE FOR HIM ON AUGUST 31 AND USE EVERY EFFORT TO HAVE YOUR FRIENDS DO SO.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN; JAPS LOOSE CURRENCY

The fire department was called out last Saturday on account of a fire at the rear of the pear packing plant behind the Pat Connolly home. The barn was destroyed with its contents. The fire was started, it is said, by some of the Japanese children who were playing with matches. Report has it that $1000 in currency belonging to some of the Japs was burned. In addition ten tents housing the colony were burned.

Several drums of gasoline blew up in the fire.

PROCTOR-CLEGHORN TO BUILD $42,000 BRIDGE

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 2.—The contract to build a $42,000 steel bridge across the south fork of the Eel river has been awarded to Proctor and Cleghorn, Santa Rosa contractors, it was announced yesterday by W. L. Proctor. Construction of the new span, which is on the new Covelo to Carney highway, will be started next week.

The bridge is being built with government funds, Proctor announced. The new highway will open up the central section of Mendocino county to motorists and also provide residents in the eastern part of the county with a highway leading into the Sacramento valley.

The local firm expects to complete the structure in 90 days.

FILES DIVORCE SUIT

Through M. H. Iversen, Kenrick V. Martin has filed a complaint in divorce against Catherine N. Martin, alleging desertion. The couple was married in Salinas, July 21, 1924, and separated November 15 of the same year. There are no children.

SENTENCED TO 90 DAYS

J. Nichols, of Willits, was arrested there for petty larceny the first of the week and was sentenced by Judge Whitney to spend 90 days in jail.

George Kinloch, who is employed at Folsom, spent a few days with his mother and sisters in this city the first of the week.

TWO YOUTHS ESCAPE FROM COUNTY FARM

Emulating the example set by Jean Davis last week, two youths being held for burglary made their getaway from the detention ward of the county farm the latter part of last week. They were Fred Craven and George Merrill.

The need for a county detention ward and quarters for minor prisoners is thus again demonstrated. It is almost impossible to prevent prisoners escaping from the present makeshift at the county farm.

OLD COVELO LANDMARK DESTROYED BY FIRE

The old Henley home, one of the landmarks of Covelo, was destroyed by fire Wednesday night of last week. The fire started in the rear of the house and was well under way before it was discovered, just after 11 o'clock. Some of the downstairs furniture was saved. There was a small insurance. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Upton, who had established the "Covelo Inn" in the building, and who have worked very hard to get the place in shape for a first class hostelry.

GOWAN FOR ASSESSOR

Byron Gowan, of Anderson valley, announces his candidacy for county assessor in this issue of the Dispatch. Mr. Gowan is a rancher of that section of the county, has served as justice of the peace and also as high school trustee.

W. C. T. U. TO ELECT

The annual election of officers of the W. C. T. U. will be held on the last Friday in August, to-wit, August 27. All members are requested to attend.

E. J. James was a city visitor this week, going down on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dalstrom and daughter, Mrs. Mayme Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilson, Henry Keller of Sacramento and Edward Keller and son, John Edward of Petaluma, make up a camping party located at Garberville. They will be in camp a week.

BOOSTING FOR FAIR AT ANDERSON VALLEY

Messrs. Frank Brown, I. C. Burke, H. McIntosh and Tom Ruddock were here from Anderson valley Tuesday to help gather subscriptions and to boost for the Anderson valley apple fair, which will be held in Anderson valley early in October.

The community there is supporting the project enthusiastically and the four representatives visiting Ukiah received pledges of support both moral and monetary from the chamber of commerce, the Rotary club and various citizens of Ukiah.

The Anderson valley people intend to build an exhibit hall on the unit system and to make the fairs an annual and permanent event.

WELL LOVED PASTOR HERE

Rev. Beecher B. Conner, one of Ukiah's former pastors, was here the first of the week. Rev. Conner, who filled the pulpit at St. John's Methodist church for several years, made a host of friends who hold him in the highest esteem and who are always glad to greet him.

DAVIS WOMAN'S LAWYER SAYS SHE WILL APPEAR

Steward Ed Zimmerman of the county farm received word from Elmer A. Robinson, a San Francisco lawyer who is representing Jean Davis, that the woman will appear in court here on the day set for her trial.

The woman escaped from the county farm where she was being held on a bad check charge, as narrated in last week's Dispatch.

SURVEY FINISHED FOR NEW ROUND VALLEY ROAD

COVELO, Aug. 2.—County Surveyor Ed. Smith has finished the survey of the Williams valley route from Covelo to the river. There are no hills to climb on this route, the heaviest grade being 3½ per cent. The entire distance is six-tenths of a mile farther by this route than by the present road over the hill, with little or no difficulty in the way of construction. On the present road there are five miles of hill road, some of it running as heavy as 11 per cent. The new route will be much simpler and cheaper to construct, and vastly easier to drive over. One engineer estimates that it will require 35 cents worth less gasoline per car for every trip to the river.

SUMMONED ON ACCOUNT OF SON'S ILLNESS

R. L. Cleveland left the early part of the week for British Columbia, where his son, Deloy, has taken a turn for the worse. The young man suffered an injury to his spine some time ago and has been badly crippled ever since. His father will bring him to Eureka to receive treatment from a specialist.

George Southard returned the latter part of last week from a motor trip to Santa Cruz.

LES ALLENBY WINS FAME AS INDIAN FIGHTER

Local Postoffice Employee Cleans Up Bad Gang Saturday Night

Les Allenby, wellknown employee of the local postoffice, has won a reputation as a veteran Indian fighter. Allenby alone and single-handed cleaned out a band of eight redskins near the depot last Saturday night when the swarthy sons of sea-cooks jumped him without warning.

Allenby was on his way to the depot to meet the midnight train. The Indians in a bunch encountered him near the LaPorte planing mill and immediately started hostilities. Les laid them out one by one, and after fighting free with his fists considered discretion the better part of valor and took to his heels. He arrived safely at the depot where he enlisted aid, but the Indians did not follow him, evidently having had enough.

The motive for the attack is a mystery to Allenby as he never had any trouble with any of the gang, and it is believed that a superabundance of "spirits" prompted their behavior.

After he had reported to the sheriff's office. Deputies McCabe, Weselsky and Briggs were put on the case, and as a result of their efforts the following have been apprehended in connection with the assault: Emmett Knight, Eldred Bosten, Zemmie Porter and Oscar Daniels. The identity of the others has been learned and they also will be rounded up as soon as they can be located.

The Indians are all huskies and if they had known as much about fist fighting and rough and tumble as Allenby he would have been killed by the gang.

PRISONER ATTEMPS SUICIDE

J. Nichols, of Willits, sent to the county jail to serve ninety days by Judge Whitney of Willits on a petty larceny charge, attempted to commit suicide by slashing his arm with a knife Wednesday. The other prisoners gave the alarm and a doctor was summoned to stop the bleeding and dress his wounds.

He remarked that it would only be a few days until he was dead anyhow and he wanted to kill himself and end the uncertainty. His line of talk has convinced the officials that his mind is affected and he will probably be examined for insanity. He seems to think he is to be executed next Monday.

NEW RESORT OPENS

Mr. Benbow, of the new Benbow hotel, near Garberville, was in Ukiah the latter part of last week. Mr. Benbow states that one unit of the hotel has been completed and is open for the accommodation of tourists. It is the intention of the Benbow family, eight of whom are interested in the hotel project to make this hotel, the Del Monte of northern California. The hotel and surroundings are beautiful and the company will cater to a high class traffic.

A dam on Eel river furnishes two miles of lake frontage on the hotel property.

The Rambler

You have no idea of the number and the variety of things people ask the Rambler to have done. The letters I receive and the suggestions made to the editor are very encouraging. Of course, few persons want their names mentioned and the credit for the entire column comes to me. However, results are what count and if this column and its friends can accomplish something, what else matters?

If Mr. Handy cannot see his way clear to repair the drinking fountain in McGarvey Park, then why not rip the thing out? I wonder if he is following that bit of advice "when in doubt, do nothing." Do you remember how quickly that little house disappeared from the river? I like men of action.

* * * * *

If the heads of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad had to start at the bottom again and were assigned to the Ukiah depot, I'll bet they would not stay with railroading long enough to be even station agents. That place is just simply impossible.

* * * * *

Vote for the municipal bond issue on August 17th. Good sanitation means good health. No city can have sanitation without an adequate sewer system. And the bridge must be built, too.

* * * * *

I have often heard the expression "'mooley cow" or "muley cow" and wondered how it came to be. I just learned that the word "mooley" comes from the Gaelic word "maol" or maolie," meaning hornless.

* * * * *

Belgium has just made King Albert a virtual dictator. Unlike the other dictatorships abroad, the Belgian government voted to surrender their powers. This is but another example of the utter inability of politicians to successfully meet a crisis. I do not know who will solve the tax problems in this country, but of this I am certain, they will not be solved by the politicians.

* * * * *

All really big people are simple minded and unaffected. Put that statement in your pipe and smoke it. It is utterly impossible for little people to impress me, and the more they attempt it, the smaller they become.

* * * * *

* * * * *

We look back with horror upon the trials for witch-craft at Salem and with ridicule upon our Puritan ancestors. But, we are just as intolerant today, and I might add, just as ignorant. There is a very great danger in our present intolerant spirit, and in speaking of intolerance I am not referring to prohibition. Presdient Goodnow recently said "A tolerant spirit toward those with those opinions we disagree is a necessary basis for intellectual progress." Years ago De Tocqueville wrote of America: "I know of no country in which, generally speaking, there is less independence of thought and less real liberty of discussion than in America. The majority draws a formidable circle around thought."

* * * * *

People living in the northwestern part of town are complaining about the lack of signs directing tourists to the municipal camp ground. The result is that strangers must constantly ask for directions. It ought to be a simple matter to remedy this difficulty. I wonder if Mr. Handy would give it his attention?

* * * * *

Do you know some of the first ten American families? Here they are?

Smith	1,304,300
Johnson	1,024,200
Brown	730,500
Williams	684,700
Jones	658,300
Miller	625,800
Davis	537,900
Anderson	477,300
Wilson	422,300
Moore	363,400

Did you ever meet a person who takes a half hour to say something that should be said in about a minute? A lot of my time is wasted in just waiting for someone to come to the point. Terseness of expression is a great virtue. Have you read the three chapter book entitled "Algy and the Bear?" I'll give it to you complete.

Chapter I. Algy went to see the bear.

Chapter II. The bear was bulgy.

Chapter III. The bulge was Algy.

I just finished reading the life of Sam Houston. And what a life he had! He was a soldier with Jackson, a Congressman and Governor of Tennessee, then Commander in Chief of the revolutionary army of Texas in the war of Santa Ana, then President of the Texas Republic, United States Senator from the State of Texas and Governor of the Lone Star State. Throughout it all, he was a man of high principles and noble ambitions.

When I am tempted to interest myself in the private affairs of others, I am brought up by Browning:

" 'Tis an awkward thing to play with souls,
And matter enough to save one's own. "

What are you accomplishingr Remember "the years are eating into our cake."

Picture a city the size of Denver, Colorado, or Portland, Oregon, moving into northern California. Well, that's what happened last year. And yet, no one had to go without or wait for electric power.

Thru a progressive, effective and efficient development program, this company has electric energy, at low rates, available in advance of the needs of the territory served.

The people can always depend on this company to give a maximum service at a minimum cost.

Since 1913 the cost of living increased 65% while the cost of electricity decreased.

Conquering Limitations

JOHN MERCEREAU'S stage coach lumbered its creaking way from New York to Philadelphia in a day and a half, in 1771, and was considered so fast that it was called "The Flying Machine." When steam came into use, there were the "Comet," the "Thunderbolt" and similar names, suggesting the attainment of the age-old need—speedy messengers.

Man's effort to overcome the limitations of time and distance finally put electricity to work, and it became his swiftest message bearer.

Half a century ago Bell invented the telephone. It is more than a messenger, for it has been developed to carry man's spoken words for great distances with the swiftness of light. Through its wizardry space is conquered with the speed of thought itself.

Weds in Santa Rosa

Glenn Richey, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Richey of this city, claimed Miss Juliet Tod as his bride at a beautiful church wedding solmenized Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church of Santa Rosa. Rev. E. E. Ingram, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Nearly two hundred guests witnessed the marriage.

The church was elaborately decorated for the wedding. Greenery was banked around the altar several feet in height. Scattered through the greens in clusters and single blossoms were pink flowers. Above the altar, formed in greens with pink asters in cluster, was a large ring garland. From the garland to the gallery of the church were streamers of greens fastened with clusters of asters. Delicate pink gladiolas were used in profusion around the altar. From the gallery were hung baskets filled with pink blossoms. The aisles of the church were outlined in white ribbons; a cluster of amaryllis lilies was at each pew. The rear of the church was shaded and lighted parlor lamps shed a soft glow over tables and baskets of flowers arranged there.

Preceding the ceremony an organ selection was rendered by Mrs. James S. Sweet. Mrs. L. M. Pride sang "At Dawn" and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William Crawford. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Tod. Clyde Richey, a brother of the groom was best man. Shirley Newell of Berkeley, a cousin of the bride, and Leonard Richey of Ukiah, a nephew of the groom, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richey, acted as ring bearers. The children carried the rings in tall pink blossoms.

The bridal gown was white georgette and silk shadow lace embroidered in crystal beads. The bridal veil was held by a wreath of natural orange blossoms. The bride carried a spray of delicate pink gladiolas. The wedding veil and a beautiful Spanish shawl covering the kneeling cushion, are heirlooms in the Tod family. The veil was worn by a bride in Scotland sixty years ago. The shawl has been passed to the eldest daughter from a great grandmother.

The maid of honor wore a gown of pink taffeta trimmed in blue and silver. She carried an armful of gladiola and delphinium. The children were dressed in white.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church. Relatives and closest friends enjoyed a wedding supper at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Richey have left on a honeymoon of two weeks. They will make their home in Santa Rosa.

The bride is very well known in Santa Rosa. She is a niece of A. M. Johnson and William Crawford. Mr. Richey is in business in Santa Rosa. Both are active workers in the Presbyterian church.

Among the family members who attended the wedding from Ukiah were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richey, Miss Nettie Richey, Ted Richey, Clyde Richey, Mrs. Lawrence Purley, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Richey of Napa.

ORRS SPRINGS

ORRS SPRINGS, Aug. 4.—Deer season started in with very little luck to the hunters but as days wore on both hunters and game increased until the house is filled to its capacity. Master Donald Weger brought in the first deer. It was a three-pointer, weighing 122 lbs.

Mr. Varney and father, of San Francisco, prominent contractors or air mail service, were among the guests. Regardless of their millions they enjoy the plain country sports and expect to return later.

The past few evenings have been spent in baseball, having some very exciting games between the San Francisco Red Socks and the Orrs Springs nine (which was composed mostly of Humboldters). The series as it stands now is one to one. The feature of the game was the pitching by Capt. Landy, an old-time ball player, and the umpiring of M. Madiera.

Vera Mathews and Elsie Jensen carry the honors in the barnyard golf, while the croquet champions are Mr. Parker and Carl Mandahl. Mrs. Delaney and Mrs. Hallett have won honors in the five hundred game.

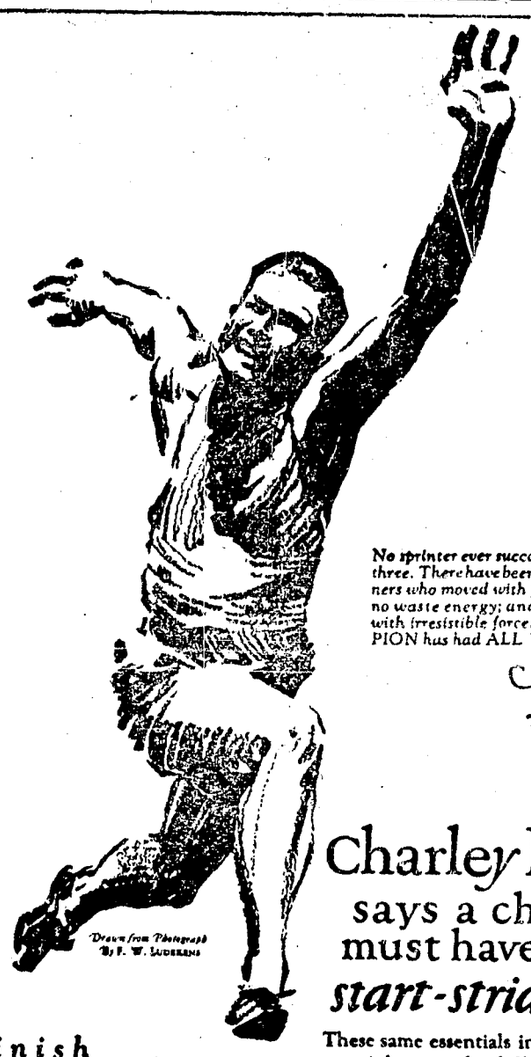
In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of said county this 1st day of August, 1926.

W. H. PRATHER,
County Clerk.



No sprinter ever succeeded without ALL three. There have been great starters; runners who moved with perfect rhythm and no waste energy; and men who finished with irresistible force. But the CHAMPION has had ALL THREE.

Charley Paddock

Charley Paddock says a champion must have all three start-stride-finish

Finish
Charley Paddock breaking the tape with his famous "jump finish" that has brought him 37 out of a possible 40 world's sprint records and an unequalled mark of 9.5 seconds for 100 yards, made May 15, this year

These same essentials in perfect co-ordination—quick start, the full stride of power, and force sustained to the very end [finish]—are necessary to good gasoline. Associated through its distinctive range of boiling points insures this kind of a performance: no sputter when you step on the starter, no miss when you give her the gas, and always a smooth supply of adequate power from start to finish. That's why Associated is Champion. Associated is always associated with "more miles to the gallon."

Yellowstone National Park

By J. B. SANFORD

My wife and I left San Francisco on the 19th of June for the Yellowstone National Park over the Southern Pacific lines. We went to Salt Lake City over the S. P. and thence to West Yellowstone by U. P., the entrance to the park. The southern Pacific knows how to treat its tourists. The trains are well equipped and the service is excellent. Mr. F. S. McGinnis, of San Francisco, general passenger traffic manager, is the right man in the right place, and is ably assisted by Karl Culton Ingram, general publicity agent, and M. M. Miller, agent at the ferry ticket office. These men in turn are assisted by Press Bancroft at Salt Lake, J. M. Scott at Portland, B. C. Talor and Mortimer Large at Seattle and E. J. Hendry and Mr. Bryant at Vancouver. Mr. McGinnis is a very able executive and with the splendid co-operation of these men has placed the Southern Pacific lines on a high plane of efficiency by all working in absolute harmony. They make it their business to please the traveling public. Courtesy is contagious with the Southern Pacific and soon becomes epidemic.

The Yellowstone National Park is located in the northwestern corner of Wyoming and has all the geological freaks of nature cornered in this small area of 3400 square miles, about as large as Mendocino county, or about three times the area of Rhode Island, or one and a half times that of Delaware. The trip to Salt Lake was exceedingly interesting as the company has made many improvements, especially what is known as the Lucin "Cut-Off," which saves about 44 miles of actual distance. The track of the cut-off is laid for 72 miles on land and 30 miles of rock fills and heavy trestle work. In building the cut-off 38,256 trees were cut down to make the piles. The trees make a trestle of 12 miles and would make a forest of two square miles. It was a wonderful feat of engineering.

Yellowstone is the largest of our national parks and is about 62 miles long and 54 miles wide. It is a broad volcanic plateau of an average elevation of 8,000 feet, surrounded by mountain ranges from 2,000 to 4,000 feet still higher. In Yellowstone there are probably 100 geysers and about 4,000 hot and boiling springs. The freaks of dynamic nature seem to be concentrated in this one neck of land where the earth puffs, steams, sizzles, growls, and roars, and gruesome volcanoes churn harmlessly. At the creation of this vast system, lateral pressure lifted the earth's skin high above sea level, folded it and finally eroded it along the crest of the folds. Of this system the Yellowstone is a volcanic interlude and belongs to the impulse of volcanic agitation. Subterranean heat, remaining from those days of volcanic activity to today, boils the water which the geysers hurl high in the air. This volcanic period was of long duration, perhaps hundreds of thousands of years. In the northern part of the park, the erosion of a hill has exposed the petrified remains of thirteen forests in layers one on top of the other, the deep intervening spaces being filled with a thick deposit of ashes. Thirteen times were great forests here smothered in the products of eruption. Thirteen times did years enough elapse between eruptions for soil to make and forests to grow again, each perhaps of many generations of great trees.

Yellowstone's mountains are decayed volcanoes, its rock is lava. Glaciers have visited the region. Between the periods from volcano to glacier and from glacier to today steam erosion has performed its wonders. Perhaps there have been greater geyser basins in the prehistoric past; there may be others to come, but Yellowstone has cornered the geyser market of the world today.

For many years geyser action remained a mystery. Water seeping through porous lava, gathers below the surface in some pocket located in strata which internal heat still keeps hot. Boiling as they gather, the waters rise till they fill the long vent-holes to the surface. Still the steam keeps making in the pocket, where it is held down by the water in the vent above. The steam compresses more and more and an explosion follows driving the water up the vent and out, and we have the geyser. These dynamic forces of nature continue at regular intervals. In this region of the earth, mother nature is very much disturbed. A geyser is a cousin to a volcano and half brother to an earthquake, on the mother's side. Some may be irreverent enough to say that this country had been visited by the wrath of God; that He became angry and left the job half done. In the procession of ages, however, He formed man in His own image. And after man came woman —and she has been after him ever since.

Entering the park at West Yellowstone the journey is continued to Mammoth Hot Springs, Old Faithful, Yellowstone Lake and the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone, where there are located hotels to accommodate the traveling public. Near each hotel are many wonders worthy to figure in the legions of the marvelous. At Mammoth Springs are the famous terraces and mud springs and embryo volcanoes, hissing, sputtering, and growling and roaring. There a roaring mountain growls and grumbles as though Dame Nature was experiencing a severe upheaval. At Old Faithful there are all kinds of geysers, large, small and beautiful to behold. Freak nature has outdone herself here.

Along the road there is much of interest. There may be seen St. Jacob's ladder, Angel terraces, Jupiter pool, Cupid's cave, Pulpit terraces, and the Devil's kitchen. The best I can say of the last named place is that it is a h--l of a place. There was a sink hole into which one might fall and a young volcano that might blow one up, either of which is bad enough.

At Old Faithful are an array of wonderful geysers. Some are now extinct that in the "bloom of youth" spurted over 250 feet into the air. Old Faithful spurts regularly every 55 minutes to a heighth of 120 to 170 feet. The minute-man geyser spurts regularly every minute, by the watch.

Yellowstone Lake is one of the largest at its elevation, 7741 feet, of any in the world. Its only competitor is Lake Titicaca in the Peruvian Andes.

The Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone is a beautiful sight. It is the only competitor to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. Its magnitude is only about one fourth as great as the Colorado.

About 150,000 people visit the park every year so that they may tell the world that they have seen all the freaks of nature. If each person spent $100 it would be enough money to run the Federal government for a month—the bootleggers would run it the rest of the time.

There are many animals in the park—bear, elk, deer, antelope, moose, Rocky mountain sheep, big horn, goats, chip munks, and squirrels. No hunting is allowed and all the animals are quite tame. There are many kinds of bears and they are the most popular of all as they will not harm one in the least, although they frequently get into the tents and eat up the campers' food. All the animals are very friendly with one another. The evening that we were at the Lake hotel the animals held a convention to discuss matters of importance. A discussion arose as to how they should vote. One animal moved that they vote by raising the tail. To this "voting sign" the bull moose registered a vehement kick stating that if that method of voting be adopted it would be unfair, as the billy goat had already voted.

In going from Old Faithful to Yellowstone the Great Divide is crossed twice, once at an elevation of 8240 feet and once at 8345 feet. The waters here flow westward into streams that ultimately empty into the great Columbia and on out into the Pacific's broad expanse, and eastward into the tributaries of the Missouri, thence to the Father of Waters and to the Gulf of Mexico and finally out into the stormy Atlantic.

An interesting story is told of the little rain drop that fell on the divide and was split in two, one half going into the Pacific ocean and the other half going into the Atlantic. These two drops got caught in rip tides and two distinct ocean currents and were finally coalesced in the Tuscarora deep in the Indian ocean and was drawn up into the air by the sun's rays and formed a part of a cloud that was slammed against the cold Himalayas and again fell as rain and congealed into snow.

Good bye little rain drop, don't you cry,
You'll be a glacier by and by.

The Yellowstone is a wonderful sight to see and is worth any one's time and money. All the freaks of nature are jammed into this one little spot of the earth's surface. It can be entered from the west, north, east or south. The best way to go, from my experience, is by the Southern Pacific Lines to Ogden and thence by Union Pacific to the West Yellowstone entrance. The Transportation Company carries passengers very reasonably, and with excellent service, the rate being $54 by hotel and $45 by the camp, which includes the transportation and board and lodging. They handle about 400 machines and the drivers are mostly college boys who use this means of securing enough money to go to school the rest of the year. They are responsible and very careful. The waitresses are normal school and college girls and make good in this capacity.

The most interesting thing about traveling is the various kind of people one meets. One here has an opportunity of seeing the human race in all its variety, phases and moods. At each of the hotels there was dancing every night. The least important ones who do not count for much at home try their best to be of vast importance by putting on "airs," talking loud and trying to attract attention. One man of foreign birth talked very loud at the counter and abused the clerk because he was not given the best of everything. His full dress suit was doubtless a rented one and he left his manners at home to accentuate that fact, and treated the waitresses disgustingly as he tried to "mash" those who happened to wait on him. His scrawny neck and spindle-legged companion aroused little interest among the American sheiks. And the pretty little co-ed flapper who waited on the table so graciously stepped out in a beautiful gown and easily "out-Charlestoned" the crowd and was the cynosure of all eyes, while the snobs became wall flowers. The Americans were the favorites while the foreign aristocrats with stolen titles and who had more money than brains, took a back seat.

As we left the park at Gardiner, Montana, several "natives" were observed at the station. They were of the "one gallus" and sore toe variety with a patch on the western hemisphere. One tourist looking intently at the crowd said to his companion: "What do these people live on?" The reply was "On the tourists." About this time a native approached with a lop eared mule and a lazy ox hitched up together to an old wagon with its wheels dished out of shape, and began to brag on his team, stating that they could be driven anywhere, to places no other animal could go. Some one asked how he succeeded in doing that wonderful feat, to which he replied; "Well, it's this way—The old ox is blind and can't see where he goes, and the mule doesn't give a dam."

It will be a joy to the war mothers and war brides who see "The Unknown Soldier" at the State theatre tonight as smiling through their tears they glory in the greatness and beauty of the theme and motif of this splendid story.

The hero of this great war drama is Charles Emmett Mack, and the leading woman is Marguerite De La Motte. Ethel Wales plays the poignant part of "mother" of "The Unknown Soldier," and Henry B. Walthall is the rich old father-in-law who opposes his daughter's love for the heroic soldier lad. Three comic doughboys, played by Syd Crossley, Jess Devorska, and George Cooper keep the audience alternating between laughs and tears.

ROD LA ROCQUE in "RED DICE" A THRILLING COMEDY DRAMA

Replete with thrilling situations and brimming with comedy from start to finish, "Red Dice," Rod LaRocque's new star picture, which comes to the State theatre Saturday, is reported as simply bristling with drama and thrills.

Rod LaRocque, by virtue of his triumphs in "The Coming of Amos," and "Braveheart," has rapidly forged to the fore as one of the screen's most popular stars. In his support is Marguerite De La Motte, and such prominent players as Gustave Von Seyffertiz, George Cooper, Ray Hallor, Charles Clary, Clarence Burton and Walter Long.

"PHANTOM BULLET" IS AN EXCEPTIONAL PHOTOPLAY

The many readers of Oscar Friend's famous story, "Click of the Triangle T," will be overjoyed to learn that it has been photodramatized and is to be shown Sunday at the State theatre, under the title of "The Phantom Bullet," with Hoot Gibson starring in the role of Tom Farlane. The author telegraphed Universal officials and expressed his satisfaction at the selection of the famous star to play the leading role in his picture to which Gibson does ample justice. In support of the star are seen such sterling players as Eileen Percy, Allan Forrest, Pat Harmon, Nelson McDowell, William H. Turner, John T. Prince, Gilbert "Peewee" Holmes, Rosemary Cooper and Robert Milash.

FAMOUS RACING STORY BOOKED FOR TUESDAY

A gambling pot in which are staked a stable of thoroughbred racing horses forms the exciting prelude to a series of thrilling incidents in "The Sporting Lover," a First National picture, which comes to the State theatre here next Tuesday.

Tearle is starred in "The Sporting Lover," and Barbara Bedford, who has recently been seen in "What Fools Men," is seen opposite the star. Prominent in support is Ward Crane, who will be remembered for his work in Corinne Griffith's "Classified;" Charles McHugh and Johnny Fox, the freckled faced tobacco chewing musical youngster in "The Covered Wagon."

EVERYBODY ALL WET IN NEW CAPPY RICKS COMEDY ABOUT SUGAR

"More Pay—Less Work," which will show at the State theatre next Wednesday is Fox Films' version of Peter B. Kyne's latest story about Cappy Ricks. Kyne has outdone all his former efforts in creating amusing situations for Cappy and his associates and in this comedy he has almost all the principal actors floundering around in San Francisco bay at some time during the action.

MANY FAVORITES TO BE SEEN IN SPECIAL COMING TO THE STATE NEXT WEEK

Recently the State theatre had the pleasure of presenting to its patrons "The Cohens and Kellys" which was beyond a doubt one of the best pictures of the entire year, so next Thursday and Friday, August 12th and 13th, they will again present this strong cast of favorites in their latest screen success, "Sweet Daddies."

While this photoplay is entirely different in theme from the former attraction you no doubt will be convinced after seeing the show that whenever you see such sterling players as George Sydney, Charlie Murray, Vera Gordon, Jask Mulhall and Jobyna Ralston featured in an attraction together it certainly must be an exceptional offering.
